Date	Name of Activity	Student Attended
9th, 12th, 13th July 2022, 8th September 2022 and 25th January 2023.	Student-teacher Library Visits	200

Library organised student-teacher visits to encourage students for optimal utilization of scholarly resources. Subject oriented visits were organised on 9th, 12th, 13th July 2022, 8th September 2022 and 25th January 2023. Students were accompanied by their teachers for resources on subjects like Mercantile Law and Bare Acts, Trends in Finance, Retails 4.0, Volpone, Economic Special and English Special. Students were taken around the library and made aware of the print and online resources available in the library. Issuing privileges, facilities like- reissue, scholar card, book bank were explained. Students were shown the special arrangements of new arrivals, exam related material, general reading books, newspapers and magazines. Librarian motivated them to utilization such resources for their benefit. Further, format and contents of journals of various subjects were demonstrated. Students were given chance to handle books on Bare acts and subject teacher. For better understanding, Dr Dimple Buche explained the special format of these books. Lecturer Dr Shanthi Fernandes illustrated latest topics from journals which could be used for assignments. Students of MA English were shown books on Volpone and other titles through online catalogue, rack location and the shelves. Subject guidance was provided by Dr Snober Sataravala. Similarly students of other subjects were taken around the library for the subject based resources. A total of 200 students attended library visits.
