LETTER OF RECOMMENDATION

Mansi Gandhi was employed with us in August 2022. The conduct and performance during the internship have been excellent.

This Letter of Recommendation is being issued due to excellent performance observed in results.

We observed the following professional strengths:

- Largely independent; able to understand a long term goal, assess the steps needed to achieve it, and work on the allotted portion of those steps, without needing someone to supervise or check in. Dependable, honest and hard working.
- Ability to work efficiently: Was able to promote one of our products to a wide audience. This product combines humour and education (which is a concept that is not always easy to communicate).
- Work ethic: Demonstrated three primary skills: excellent communication, quick grasping power and maturity.

Warm regards
