Date	Name of Activity	Student Attended
7 th ,8thAugust 2023.	Student-Teacher Library Visits	131

Library organised student-teacher visits to encourage students for optimal utilization of scholarly resources. Subject oriented visits were organised on 7th and 8th August 2023 for students from TY BCom and SY BA. They were accompanied by their teachers for demonstration of resources on the subjects- International Business and Demography. Students were taken around the library and made aware of the print and online resources available in the library. Issuing privileges, getting login credentials, accessing online catalogue, databases, e-books and e-journals, Read Plus Club, Library Ambassadorship were explained to them. Information was given on importance of reading general and financial news papers focusing on pages devoted to news stories on economics both in English and Marathi languages. Further, format and contents of journals were demonstrated including titles - Economic & Political weekly, Yojana, Bank Quest, Focus IB naming a few. Subject teachers highlighted the contents from the books on International Economics/Business by authors like Paul Krugman, Robert Carbaugh, Rajendra Maheshwari and others. Students from SYBA were introduced to resources on demography and population. They were shown resources like India yearbook, Manorama year book, Census of India Atlas, websites of UNDP among others. A total of 131 students attended the library visits. Mrs Devinder Kaur (Librarian), Dr Shalini Iyer (HOD- Business Economics) and Ms. Amruta Narke (Economics) were the resource persons.
