Report- International Women's Day celebration
On 8th March, 2023. Gmeet Platform at 3pm

The Department of Sociology and the Department of NSS celebrated "International Women's Day" on 8th March, 2023. From 3pm on Gmeet platform. There were a total of 36 participants present. The program was coordinated by Gracey and Ashleen. Through the program the students celebrated womanhood. The students took active part in the celebration.

A. Video screening -The program began with the brief introduction on the history of women's day by Gracey. Students got to understand why 8th March came to be celebrated as International women's day through this information. Students were also shown a music video 'Scars to Your Beautiful' by Alessia Cara that talked about the idea that all women are equally beautiful irrespective of their differences.

B. Sharing some schemes for women- Followed by this Nss students gave us information about various schemes launched by the government for the welfare of women. Under this was Mahil E- haat, Working women's hostel, Lady Mahirbai Tata Education Scholarship, Swadhar Greh scheme and Glow and Lovely Scholarship. Students were given brief information on the aims and objectives of these schemes and scholarships for women.

C. Dance and Song performance by students- Nss students also portrayed their ideas on womanhood through dancing and singing. Students sang song on womanhood and created a beautiful environment. The dance portrayed by our student was really graceful.

D. Sharing experience of individuals about womanhood- Lastly the students expressed their opinions and their stories related to their experience as a women. The students expressed their personal stories which was really inspiring to hear. With this the celebration ended on a beautiful note with a vote of thanks given by Gracey.

E. Library book display- On the occasion of women's day the library held a display of book on womanhood. A lot of students enjoyed watching the display put forth by the library.

Student volunteers- Gracey gaware, Ishita Pillay, Tejaswini Rajput and Ashleen Kaur

A Report- Public Lecture on Understanding the Gender Violence

The Department of Sociology organised a guest lecture on Understanding Gender Violence . The lecture was held on the 11th of January 2023 at 12pm in the AV room of St. Mira's College. 100 students and 20 faculties total 120 participants attended this lecture.

The esteemed guest lecturer for this event was Dr. Mirna Guha, Senior Lecturer in Sociology at Anglia Ruskin University (Cambridge, UK) She was invited to speak on researching gender violence in India and UK and shared her insights on methodology, commonalities and differences within the two.

The program was formally introduced by Dr. Vaishali Diwakar The program began with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp by the Principal In Charge and the Vice Principal and felicitation of the speaker by the Principal In Charge.

Dr. Guha spoke widely about her research which centred around the sex workers in Kolkata facing violence. The gendered nature of violence was also explained to the audience by Dr. Guha. The audience were later allowed to have exchanges of examples that they sought through the previous discussion.

The second half of the session was based on Dr. Guha's study in the Asian Communities based in East England, UK facing challenges pertaining to violence.

A fundamental presentation of her research process and findings was delivered through the PPT used.

The guest lecture was then opened up for questions by the attendees who enthusiastically participated by putting forward critical questions about the study.

Dr. Vaishali Joshi presented a formal vote of thanks to conclude the extremely resourceful session.
