Social Outreach Initiative for an NGO- Hope for the Children Foundation
January 2023 to February, 2023
REPORT

Social Outreach initiative for an NGO- Hope for the Children Foundation (HFCF) was undertaken by the Department of Accountancy and Department of Business Studies from January 2023 to February, 2023, where our SYBCOM B students, Ms. Ghanashree Pawar and Ms. Anushka Thul assisted in the Data Tabulation and Analysis Assistance in Platform Number 1, Pune Railway Station for the Survey undertaken by the NGO. In addition to the above initiative, 80 students of SYBCom v volunteered for distribution of food packets to the underprivileged at the Pune Railway Station.

Hope for the Children Foundation (HFCF) has initiated India's second and Maharashtra first ever Child Friendly Room initiative in the Child Friendly Railway Station Model which has been working relentlessly for over 15 years rehabilitating children from vulnerable families. In this work HFCF has focused primarily on prevention and awareness generation alongside support and rehabilitation.

The outcomes of the Social Outreach initiative are the volunteers developed skills such as Social Skills, IT, Research, Teamwork and Coordination.
