JNK Introductory Session 2022-23

Date: 16th September, 2022

Classes: JNK Club Members

Total Participants: 27

JNK Club under the English Department organized an introductory session for the academic year 2022-23 to introduce and invite fellow degree college students to the club. The session began with the introductions of the committee members which was followed by a briefing upon what the club is about and the previously conducted activities like the Kosufest (intercollegiate cosplay competition), group events which include Kpop screenings, theories, discussions, Korean drama screening, Anime screening, Cosplays, drawing contests etc. They even disclosed the upcoming activities and events in this academic year. Thereafter, the committee members encouraged the participants to introduce themselves and share their interests to have a brief warming up session amongst the students. Senior committee members also joined and shared their delightful experiences. A great number of people had similar interest and expressed their excitement during the short games and bonding activities, making it an enthusiastic and interactive session.
