Guest lecture on "Literature Review for research paper writing"

The Accountancy Department organized a guest lecture on "Literature Review for research paper writing", for TYBCom and MCom students. The session was conducted by Asst. Prof. Mr. Gilbi John from St. Vincent College of Commerce, Pune on 12th October 2022 at room number 101 from 12pm to 1pm. The objective of guest lecture was to learn and clarify doubts on effective literature review and implement the knowledge in research paper writing.

The speaker told students about importance of reading and gave list of different libraries in Pune. He also gave the list of online libraries, portals for research thesis and different websites to refer to for data collection and literature reviews.

It was an enlightening and very informative session as the speaker encouraged the students to undertake small research projects and write research papers. The students got an insight into the different methods of literature writing. 80 students attended the session and they were keen to learn more.
